Little Forests Durham-Mini Forest Planting at Heber Down Conservation Area

Date and Time: Saturday, October 18 9:30 am - 12:00 pm

Address: 5000 Cochrane St, Whitby, ON

Join us for a fun day of tree planting at the Heber Down Conservation Area! Thanks to a large group of community volunteers, the site was prepared in August 2025 by laying down cardboard, spreading compost and mulch. These materials have been settling over the last few months, creating a nutrient-rich site for the 600 trees and shrubs to be planted. This is a great opportunity to get outdoors, connect with nature, and make a positive impact on the environment. No experience necessary, just bring your enthusiasm and willingness to get your hands dirty!

What to wear and bring:

- Protective work gloves
- Closed-toe shoes or boots
- Reusable water bottle
- Clothes appropriate for the weather
- Sunscreen and mosquito repellent (if necessary)
- Shovels (if possible), but we will have some available as well
- Epi-pen (for those with severe food, insect, or environmental allergies)

Light refreshments will be provided, but feel free to bring your own if you'd like.

Registration required.

While recent global shifts have created urgency around supporting Canadian innovation, the real opportunity lies not in policy changes, but in building the infrastructure that allows Canadian entrepreneurs to naturally outcompete international solutions.

Our globally recognized Master Class speaker will discuss and elaborate on five critical lessons for creating ecosystems where Canadian innovation thrives.

- The Network Effect Challenge
- The Municipal Opportunity
- The Support Organization Ecosystem
- From Survival to Competitive Advantage
- The Collaboration Imperative

A panel of leading-edge, Durham based entrepreneurs will share their insights, challenges, recommendations, and opportunities to accelerate Canada's innovative economy.

The Stories Artifacts Tell Us: Examining the Stories of the Private Spaces

Date and Time: Tuesday, October 21 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 270 Simcoe Street North

COST: $40

Each Parkwood artifact has its own story to share. The everyday items found in the Parkwood private spaces serve as a valuable repository of information about the lives of Sam, Adelaide, their daughters, as well as the domestic service staff of the Estate. These stories help modern day visitors connect with the past.

In this intimate curatorial chat, an artifact show & tell, Samantha will highlight artifacts, placing the object into the social-cultural context, enabling a deeper understanding of the significance of the object in the lives of Parkwood.

As this event takes place in our Sunroom/Loggia, there are several steps to the lower level. If anyone in your party has mobility issues please do let us know a minimum of 7 days in advance of the event.

What's included

Curatorial chat from Samantha.

Light refreshments will be provided.

What's not included

A tour of the Private spaces is NOT included in this program. Private Spaces Tours will need to be booked separately.
